Step off the beaten path and into the heart of Geneva's Old Town, where history whispers through narrow alleyways, forgotten courtyards, and ancient stones. This immersive tour will take you beyond the postcard-perfect facades, revealing the mysteries, scandals, and power struggles that shaped the city over centuries. Wander through the once-thriving harbor of Place Longemalle, where merchants and butchers shaped Geneva's early economy. Stroll past La Madeleine, the city's former red-light district, where the shadows of a hidden past still linger. Stand in Bourg-de-Four, the beating heart of Geneva for over a thousand years, and uncover the dark secrets of the Bishop's prison, hidden in the depths of the Old Town. Follow in the footsteps of great thinkers at Collège Calvin, the city's oldest school and a pillar of the Reformation. Discover the last remnants of medieval Geneva along Grand Rue, where time stands still among the city's oldest houses. But Geneva is not just a city of grandeur—it is a city of resistance.
